From: The King-Thomas Scholarship Committee
Re: Application Completion

The King-Thomas Scholarship Committee has become concerned over the quality of applications submitted during recent years. As a result, the Committee has established several specific expectations of applicants:

- Applications must be entirely completed. Leaving sections incomplete may result in the applicant being judged ineligible for an award.
- Applications should be scholarly in appearance. (i.e. neat, legible, and well-articulated).
- Previous semester grades should be attached.
- The Committee is genuinely interested in your progress in college and would like to know how a King-Thomas Scholarship can make a difference in attaining your career goals.
- The deadline to submit a King-Thomas application is the first Monday in May. Late applications will not be considered.
